Camp fees for Webelos crossovers in the same year as camp attendance and new Scouts that join in the same year as camp attendance may pay the discount rate until May 31.

A deposit of $75 is required for each Scout attending camp to register them for attendance. The deposit is due by February 28, with the full balance to be paid by May 31. Adults are not required to pay a deposit.

The camp fee for youth includes all program fees.

For families with more than one youth registering to attend Cub Scout and/or Scouts BSA resident camp in the same summer, the full camp fee is applicable to one of the youth in the family and a reduction of $50 to the camp fee will be applied for each additional youth in the same family that registers for camp.

Why has the start of Cub Scout Sessions moved to Friday?

By starting our Cub Scout Session on Saturday, we are able to provide more time to the staff to develop and implement a high-quality program geared specifically towards Cub Scouts. Additionally, by starting on the weekend, Cub Scout parents will not have to use to use as much PTO or vacation time in order to spend time up at camp with their scouts.
